Music for Little Mozarts: Rhythm Speller

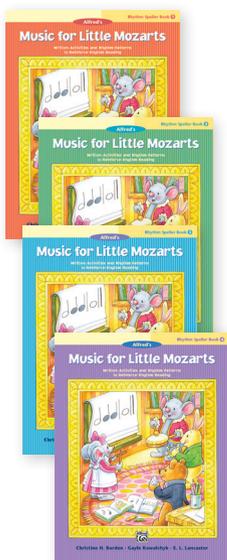

CLASSROOM RESOURCES

Gotta Have Games

Music for Little Mozarts

The Rhythm Speller Books 1–4 reinforce rhythm skills based on the concepts introduced in the Music Lesson Books 1–4. Each page of the Rhythm Speller Book has two activities—a rhythm-writing activity and a rhythm-reading activity. The written activities reinforce note values and counting through coloring, circling, drawing, or matching. The rhythm-reading activities help students practice clapping or tapping rhythm patterns while counting aloud, playing rhythms on rhythm instruments or keys on the keyboard, and chanting words based on rhythm patterns.

Music for Little Mozarts: Rhythm Ensembles and Teaching Activities

Performance Ensembles and Strategies to Reinforce Musical Concepts

By Christine H. Barden, Gayle Kowalchyk, and E. L. Lancaster

Includes eight rhythm ensembles featuring pieces accompanied by one or two rhythm instruments. By studying these ensembles, students learn to identify rhythm patterns. Teaching activities focus on three areas—rhythm, reading, and intervals. Includes reproducible student pages.

Black Cat Boogie

By Dennis Alexander

An excellent study in projecting the right-hand melody over the left-hand accompaniment, it also features scale-like figures that alternate between the hands.

 UPC: 038081541235 | ISBN-13: 978-1-4706-4068-2

Sleepy Creepy Zombie

By Wynn-Anne Rossi

The melody of this clever elementary piece, often alternating between the hands, is interrupted by two-measure phrases in which the hands play together.

00-47303 | Elementary | $3.50
 UPC: 038081541242 | ISBN-13: 978-1-4706-4069-9

Halloween Dream

By Melody Bober

This piece features crossovers in chromatic figures and shifting octaves that move around the keyboard. The melody alternates between the right and left hand.

 UPC: 038081541259 | ISBN-13: 978-1-4706-4070-5

The Headless Horseman

By Tom Gerou

This solo is in D minor, without the key signature for ease of reading. The use of extended-range gestures add color, while the melody alternates between the left and right hand.

Piano Duets

Autumn Celebration

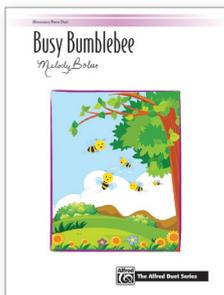

By Millie Eben

A lively duet in A-B-A form, this is an excellent study in staccato and legato playing for late elementary students.

UPC: 038081539935 | ISBN-13: 978-1-4706-4038-5

Busy Bumblebee

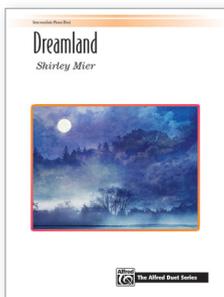

By Melody Bober

The melodic line is traded back and forth between the secondo and primo parts much like a canon. The lively tempo will give the feeling of two beats per measure even though the time signature is $\frac{4}{4}$.

00-47081 | Elementary | $4.99

UPC: 038081539942 | ISBN-13: 978-1-4706-4039-2

Dreamland

By Shirley Mier

Students are challenged to focus on balance and tempo changes to create an expressive performance. Melodies in both parts require performers to shape the phrases and project a singing tone.

Pretzels

By Christine Wolf

This early intermediate duet is both a study in sound and choreography. In both the primo and secondo parts, the left hand crosses over the right hand at different places in the piece. In the middle of the duet, the secondo plays a long scale-like line moving up the keyboard while changing places with the primo at the same time.

Everyday Composition

Interactive Lessons for the Music Classroom

By Joan Eckroth-Riley

Expand your elementary curriculum with these beautifully illustrated interactive lessons for your computer or interactive whiteboard. Each lesson plan begins with a song, poem, or story; invites students to improvise as a group and individually using their voices, recorders, xylophones, or percussion instruments; and progresses to a rubric-based composition project. Along the way, students will organically generate, refine, and share their original musical ideas as they expand their artistic decision-making skills. This interactive resource works on both individual computers and interactive whiteboards, and is PC and Mac compatible. Recommended for grades 2–5.

About the Author

Jim Snidero has come to be known as one of the finest jazz musicians of his generation. As an alto saxophonist, composer, arranger, author, and educator, Snidero has been called both a "master musician" and "alto saxophone virtuoso" by Downbeat magazine, and placed in the 2017 Downbeat Critic's Poll. He is the best-selling jazz author of his generation, with his Jazz Conception Series translated into four languages. Jim is an adjunct faculty member at The New School in New York and New Jersey City University, and he's been a visiting professor at some of the finest music institutions in the world, including Indiana University and Princeton University.
