CELEBRATING

20 Years of Excellence

2010 Marks the 20th Anniversary of Alfred's Sacred Choral Division

This year marks the 20th anniversary of Alfred Sacred Choral Music, which was formed in 1990 by our first Church Choral Editor, Jean Anne Shafferman.

Today, after 20 years of hard work by countless numbers of people, I am lucky enough to occupy the Managing Editor's chair she so solidly fixed.

She once said, "...the personal delight for me wasn't in the business strategy; rather, it was in the servanthood."

That dedication to "servanthood" remains an overriding principle with Alfred Sacred Choral Music. It is the same call that keeps Music Ministers returning to the director's stand rehearsal after rehearsal, service after service. We at Alfred present a broad array of high quality church music suitable for those director's various callings and the church's varied worship styles.

In this historic 20th anniversary release, Alfred offers fresh, innovative materials to reinforce the call to praise God and to minister through music to God's people.

Here you'll find exciting new anthems from hallmark composers and arrangers such as Tom Fettke, Craig Courtney, Ruth Elaine Schram, Lloyd Larson, Vicki Tucker Courtney, Mary McDonald, and Mark Hayes.

You'll find anthems from names that might be new to you—Heather Sorenson, Carson Cooman, Thomas Grassi, Regi Stone, and Mark Sirett.

As a bonus we've included anthems from a select group of best-sellers.

Happy 20th anniversary Alfred Sacred Choral Music! "Thank you" to everyone who, through their daily dedication, keeps this servant-venture going strong.

Matthew 25:23 "...Well done, good and faithful servants."

Samuel Trevor Francis, W. A. Mozart/Tom Fettke

SATB(00-32409) $1.95

InstruPax(00-32410) $30.00

InstruTrax CD(00-32411) $24.99

Mozart's motet, "Ave Verum Corpus" (KV 618) is widely considered one of the most beautiful pieces of music ever composed. Tom Fettke takes this inspired music and adds to it Samuel Trevor Francis' beloved text. There are no surprises; the choral parts are as pristine and straightforward as you learned them, but the different text allows for a fresh perspective on both the music and the text. Also available are parts for string quartet (2 violins /viola /cello) with organ.

Ephesians 3:18; John 13:1; Hebrews 7:25

CD 1 TRACK 4Alfred Church Choral Series*Let the People Give ThanksPamela Martin, Lloyd LarsonSATB(00-34809) $1.95

Lloyd Larson and Pamela Martin join in creating a joyful paraphrase of Psalm 107. Its rolling, infectious 6/8 fits the text perfectly. Martin chooses words with care and deep respect for the original source; Larson's music is delightful and memorable without being simplistic. Suitable for both general worship and Thanksgiving, it is a sure winner!

*Psalm 107; 2 Corinthians 2:14; Ephesians 5:19, 20CD 1 TRACK 5*H.W. Gray*Let Thy Blood in Mercy PouredJohn Brownlie, Sheldon CurrySATB(00-32396) $1.85

Simplicity is the foundation of this setting of John Brownlie's translation of the deep communion text. Sheldon Curry uses a gentle touch and respectful approach to the music and its support of the words. This anthem will not take long to prepare, but offers benefits for years. Suitable for communion, Lent, and Holy Week.

*1 Corinthians 10:16; Galatians 2:20; Galatians 6:14CD 1 TRACK 6*Alfred Church Choral Series*Immortal PraiseIsaac Watts, Traditional/Marty ParksSATB(00-34818) $1.95InstruPax(00-34819) $30.00InstruTrax CD(00-34820) $24.99

Marty Parks uses the hymn tune "Lasst uns Erfreuen" as the basis of this thrilling anthem of praise. It is rhythmically energetic while being accessible to volunteer choirs and the accompaniment adds just the right touch of syncopation. Optional brass (3 trumpets/2 trombones) and percussion make this a special feast for Thanksgiving or general worship.

*Psalm 136:1; Psalm 135; John 3:17CD 1 TRACK 7*Alfred Church Choral Series*Jesus Loves MeAnna B. Warner & Tom Fettke, William B. Bradbury/Tom FettkeSATB(00-34832) $1.95

Some may think of the beloved hymn as just a children's song. However, when asked to sum up his life's most profound discovery, the brilliant theologian Karl Barth said, "Jesus loves me . . ." There is great depth in simplicity. Tom Fettke's inspired arrangement begs us to look at this treasure anew. Valuable gems still gleam here.

*Ephesians 3:17, 18; Ephesians 5:2; Matthew 19:13-15CD 1 TRACK 8*H.W. Gray*Our Hope for Years to ComeIsaac Watts, Traditional/Austin LovelaceSATB(00-32397) $1.95

"Kingsfold" is one of England's finest gifts to hymnody. Its soaring melody is fitted with Isaac Watts' hymn text—"O God Our Help in Ages Past"—in this splendid anthem. Austin Lovelace's arrangements are always accessible while remaining fresh. This one is no exception. The choral parts sing effortlessly and the simple accompaniment, whether realized on piano or organ, is uplifting.

*Psalm 90CD 1 TRACK 9*Alfred Church Choral Series*Jesus, Savior, Pilot MeEdward Hopper & Charles Wesley, Thomas Grassi/Thomas GrassiSATB(00-32404) $1.95

Pairing the text of Edward Hopper's nineteenth century hymn "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" with Charles Wesley's "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Thomas Grassi brings us a musical meditation on our longing for the presence of Christ in times of trouble. The cello part is expertly written and the piano accompaniment, while not simple, uses a full palette of colors and register changes to support the text. The result is uplifting, never overbearing.

*Matthew 8:23-27; Mark 4:35-41; Luke 8:22-25; Wisdom of Solomon 11:26CD 1 TRACK 10*Alfred Church Choral Series*Light of GodKeith Getty & Kristyn Getty/Ruth Elaine SchramSATB(00-34816) $2.05

Ruth Elaine Schram's arrangement of the Getty's hymn manages to be simple and majestic at the same time. The anthem is a prayer for goodness, truth, and beauty to be in our lives and in the world around us even in the midst of darkness. Its prayer is that God, who is light, might banish darkness within us, that we might be refined by His holiness, and might in turn be God's light in the world. Much of the language is suggested by the writings of C. S. Lewis, to whom it is dedicated.

*Exodus 35:31; Acts 2:2-4, 33, 38; Ephesians 1:12-14, 17CD 1 TRACK 11*Sing Praise*On the Jericho RoadDon S. McCrossan/Mary McDonaldSATB(00-32412) $1.95SAB(00-34837) $1.95InstruPax(00-32413) $30.00InstruTrax CD(00-32414) $24.99

Mary McDonald offers her arrangement of one of the most loved gospel favorites. The easy going feel is as comfortable as a front porch swing! The accompaniment is relaxed and fits easily into any pianist's hands. The choral writing is Mary McDonald at her best. Whether offered with piano alone, with the accessible instrumental parts, or with the InstruTrax CD, this toe-tapper is one you'll revisit again and again.

*Matthew 20:29-34; Mark 10:46; Luke 18:35-43CD 1 TRACK 12*Alfred Church Choral Series*Song of DevotionTom FettkeSATB(00-34885) $1.95

Hiding in Thee

William O. Cushing, Ira D. Sankey/Cindy Berry

SATB(00-32375) $1.85

Cushing wrote this hymn text in 1876 and he remarked later that the words came from pain and deep turmoil which the world could never know. As is the case with time tested hymns, the truth he spoke then holds true today. Cindy Berry treats both its words and music with respect for its message and reverence for the expanse of God's grace toward us. The choral writing is warm and easily prepared; the sensitive accompaniment is humbly supportive. This is Berry at her understated best.

The original title for Mote's 1834 poem was "The Immutable Basis of a Sinner's Hope." Today we know it as "The Solid Rock." 19th century Englishman Mote could not have imagined that his text would, 175 years later, inspire 21st century Texan Matt Redman's moving musical statement of faith. The choral writing is as simple and straightforward as is the text. Michael Lawrence's orchestration paints moving mystical colors from this dramatic Fetteke/Grassi collaboration. Together they make a refreshing addition to worship.

Balm in Gilead

Traditional/Mark Hayes

Mark Hayes' reflective setting of this classic early 19th century African American spiritual is perfect for offering during times of discouragement or as a reminder of God's faithfulness. The text draws on the image of Gilead, which in biblical times was a source of spices and medicinal ointments. "Balm" becomes a metaphor for redemption in Christ. Hayes' soothing harmonies paint the text beautifully. The choral writing is thoughtful and moving. As is always the case in Hayes' music, the piano part is rich and masterfully crafted. This beloved hymn reminds us of the task of every Christian—to be a witness of Christ's healing love.

From his Peer Gynt Suite, Edvard Grieg's haunting "No 1, Op 46" ("Aase's Death") is one of the Norwegian composer's best known melodies. Charlotte Elliot's "Just as I Am" hymn text is a classic. Sheldon Curry combines the two and provides vivid depth to both. Elizabeth Prentiss, Bob Krogstad/Thomas Grassi

Elizabeth Prentiss wrote these words in a time of deep despair. She had lost two young children in quick succession and suffered from insomnia and what would now be called clinical depression. Yet in the midst of this dark time she was able to begin the poem that would become the hymn we know so well. Composer Bob Krogstad has framed the words with a new melody and arranger Thomas Grassi has arranged it skillfully. The choral parts are simple, the accompaniment is easily mastered, but the positive results of its presentation in worship will linger.

ADULT CHRISTMAS MUSICALS

an EVENING in DECEMBER

Created and arranged by Tom Fettke,
David Huntsinger, Robert Sterling, & Ken Bible

How can we adequately tell the story of our transcendent God becoming a human being...becoming the poorest of the poor and the weakest of the weak...in order to give us His boundless, everlasting life? How can we celebrate such an event?

- The story should be retold both with time-honored tradition and with the newness of here and now.
- It should be celebrated with unbridled joy and with deep, quiet reflection.
- It should be sung with great power and with heartfelt tenderness.
- It should exalt our magnificent God with boldness and with childlike humility.

Such a retelling, such a celebration is our prayer for An Evening in December. May it give you a new glimpse of Emmanuel, God with Us, and fill your heart with a new song of thankfulness and praise.

A Simple Christmas Pageant

Cindy Sterling, Sheldon Curry

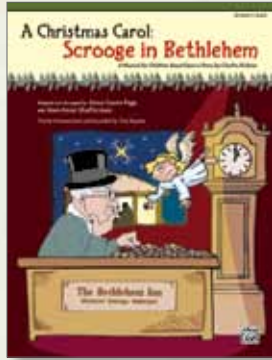

A Simple Christmas Pageant is a multi-generational Christmas program. It is brief (35 minutes), intentionally simple and reminiscent of a slower, gentler time (think "A Prairie Home Companion" meets "A Charlie Brown Christmas"). There are only two speaking parts; a Storyteller and Saint Nicholas. Cindy Sterling and Sheldon Curry have created a hassle free, inexpensive alternative to big Christmas musicals. It requires little rehearsal time, few financial resources and is extremely family friendly. The music and carols are, for the most part, familiar, and the congregation sings along with every piece. It is intended for folks who want to provide a relaxed Christmas program the whole neighborhood will attend and enjoy. A Simple Christmas Pageant is sure to become a warm community building Christmas worship tradition.

- Offers a simplified approach to a Christmas program.
- Includes traditional carols and familiar stories.
- Easy to practice and present.
- Appropriate for all ages.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL: SCROOGE IN BETHLEHEM

A Musical for Children Based Upon a Story by Charles Dickens

Adapted and arranged by Anna Laura Page and Jean Anne Shafferman, orchestrated by Tim Hayden

A Christmas Carol: Scrooge in Bethlehem is an adaptation of Charles Dickens' 19th-century English story, A Christmas Carol. In this merry adaptation Scrooge is the Bethlehem Innkeeper who refuses shelter to Mary and Joseph on that first Christmas night. His front desk clerk, Bob Cratchit, comes to their aid while Scrooge sleeps alone in his dark room in the inn. When God sends an angel with the Light of Salvation to Scrooge, the wretched man is forced to search his soul. Gradually he realizes that he has traded his soul for money. His final redemption reflects the promise of salvation for all, both poor and rich, in the birth of Emmanuel, God with us. Don't miss out on this treasure!

THE LAST NOEL A Christmas Musical for Children

Words and music by Ruth Elaine Schram and Scott Schram, orchestrated by Tim Hayden

The baby Jesus is born in the LAST place on earth you'd expect to find God's son—behind the LAST stable door on the left at the LAST Resort Inn. After the angel choir announces the news of the FIRST

Noel—the FIRST Christmas—the animals who gather with the shepherds and the magi realize that this will not be the LAST time that all of God's creatures gather to celebrate Jesus' birth! This delightful Christmas story is told from the animals' point of view. The Last Noel is perfect for children's choirs, Christian schools or Sunday schools. Directors can expand the cast to accommodate larger groups, and the staging can be as simple or complex as you desire.

There is no easier way to introduce children to harmony and part-singing than "the Round." What an ingenious concept—everyone sings the same thing, just beginning at different

Lead, Kindly Light

By Howard Goodall

Composer's note: Whilst I admire the familiar, existing tunes associated with the hymn, I wanted my "Lead, Kindly Light" to evoke the turbulent waters of the sea, serving as a reminder of the fact that its words were written by a man who believed himself to be confronted with the possibility of death, stranded as he was at sea and critically ill, and also of the metaphor of troubled waters, for anyone who has looked despair in the face, sought and found a kindly light to lead them on.

On Eagles' Wings

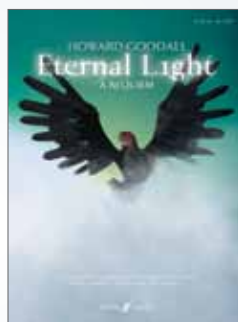

By Alexander L'Estrange

Eternal Light: A Requiem

By Howard Goodall

The writing of a requiem is a special challenge for any composer. The great requiems of the past by composers such as Mozart, Verdi, and Berlioz interpret the sacred requiem text literally, offering prayers of salvation for the departed, whose souls are assumed to be in purgatory facing a terrible judgment. Eternal Light: A Requiem, by the Emmy Award-winning British composer and internationally acclaimed broadcaster Howard Goodall is a stunning new requiem for the modern day. In contrast it is intended to provide solace to the grieving, reflecting on the words of the Latin Mass by juxtaposing them with poems in English.

Seek Him That Maketh the Seven Stars

By Jonathan Dove

A joyful, uplifting setting of Psalm 139. The organ part, with its sparkling use of high registers, subtly evokes the stars. This exquisitely complements the carefully sculpted vocal lines. "Seek Him that maketh the seven stars and Orion and turneth the shadow of death into the morning. Alleluia, yea, the darkness shineth as the day, the night is light about me. Amen," (Amos 5:8, Psalm 139).
