So You Want to Learn to Improvise?
By Andrew Higgins
So You Want to Learn to Improvise? offers teachers and students a step-by-step guide to improvising at the piano. The objective is to free students from the “tyranny” of notation, setting them free to explore music on their own terms. Most lapse pianists who return to the piano in later life cite “just playing whatever I feel like” as being the only quality they aspire to, and this book offers them that opportunity.

OPERAS AND OPERETTAS

Thomas Adès

Powder Her Face
An Opera in Two Acts
Thomas Adès and Philip Hensher’s dazzlingly precocious chamber opera Powder Her Face propelled its composer to international attention after its premiere in 1995 and remains one of the most frequently performed British operas of the last two decades. Charting the glamorous rise and seedy fall of the notorious socialite beauty Margaret, Duchess of Argyll, the score is as witty, poignant, and memorable as the “Dirty Duchess” herself, paying homage to the popular idioms of cabaret and tangos, as well as to Weill, Berg, and Stravinsky.

A long standing ovation was the first of many marks of recognition and praise for this extraordinary work, which has been hailed by critics as “one of the best operas of the 21st century so far” and “the birth of a masterpiece.” The opera is scored for 60 players, lasts 95 minutes, and has a cast of five.

Just for Two: Short Melodic Duets, Volume 1
Arr. James Zingara
The material in these duets have been taken from a variety of public domain sources including vocal duets and instrumental works for strings, horns, flutes and even bagpipes(!); composers represent both the well-known and the quite obscure. The difficulty level of these duets ranges from quite easy to intermediate with the emphasis of relatively simple melodies in which shaping, phrasing and intonation are the primary challenges.

16 Moderately Challenging Jazz Solos

By Walt Weiskopf

From the popular performer and composer, here are 16 solos based on well-known standards designed to improve your time, melodic sense, and harmonic awareness. They sound like “real” solos because they were designed the way real soloists think and play. Chord changes are written above each measure, allowing instant analysis of how and why a particular lick or pattern sounds great. Tempos are moderate to moderate-fast, so they are very approachable for intermediate level players.

This book shows how motives may be developed using simple five-note major, minor, and diminished scales and how to apply chromatic embellishment to those scales. Also included is a CD of practice tracks with play-along parts in the book transposed for all instruments.

By Ruth Elaine Schram and Mark Cabaniss

It’s not just another day at the Tiny Bit of Heaven Motel in Bethlehem (actually a stable behind a small inn), which is run completely by animals. The innkeeper is the only human that ever comes in among the animal visitors, but rumor has it’s bringing a human couple in to stay the night, and the animals are afraid they’ll ruin everything! But they all eventually learn a certain “stranger on the straw” came to earth to change the world, and that even people and things we don’t understand can sometimes be miracles in disguise. Recommended for grades K through six. Approximately 20 minutes.

Historical Journeys

A Wintertime Mini-Musical for Unison and 2-Part Voices

Arr. Ben A. Harlan, narration by Ragan Courtney

This musical juxtaposes one of the Magi (Mordecai) as he follows the Star of Bethlehem, with Benjamin, a soldier stationed in the Middle East 2,000 years later who is looking up at the same stars.
